INTERVIEW SUMMARY

Sir:

The undersigned attorney for the applicants thanks the Examiner for the courtesy of conducting a telephonic interview November 1, 2010. During the interview, the Examiner and the undersigned attorney discussed proposed amendments that shall be included in a forthcoming response. The Examiner agreed that the objection to the specification and rejections under 35 U.S.C. §112 shall be overcome by the proposed amendment. Additionally, the Examiner agreed that the finality of the rejection was premature and shall be withdrawn. The Examiner suggested that a response after final action be submitted rather than a response accompanied by a Request for Continued

Examination and corresponding fee. The Examiner indicated that he shall respond with a new final rejection or a non-final rejection, if a rejection is appropriate. It is respectfully noted that the Examiner's Interview Summary neglected to address the possibility that the application may be condition for allowance upon the submission of the forthcoming response and result in a Notice of Allowance rather than another rejection.

Respectfully submitted,

BLAKELY, SOKOLOFF, TAYLOR & ZAFMAN LLP
